

Catherine Coleman 4806 Mayflower Rd

Pottery

Introduced to clay during her studies at Roanoke College; undergraduate work in porcelain

Melissa Malone 4401 Newport Ave

Paintings on canvas

Large-scale “portrait”-style landscapes; influenced by Goya and Bruegel; graduate of University of Colorado with studio art minor

Mary Lou Carlson 511 Rhode Island Ave

Fiber art, quilting

Has been designing quilt patterns for four years and quilting for five; works out of her home

Tara Sheldon 511 Rhode Island Ave

Paper cut-outs

Award-winning work inspired by Matisse, Macintosh and O’Keefe; blends feng shui spatial principles with impact of color on mood

Linda Banyay 715 Rhode Island

Fiber art and knitting

Knitting since age 9; creates 14 different layette designs; passing down the handcrafting tradition

Tamara Olive 444 Virginia Ave

Ceramic ornaments and handbuilt pottery

Whimsical collage of color and style, influenced by Spanish and Turkish traditions

Dina M. Bower 632 Virginia Ave

Digital photography

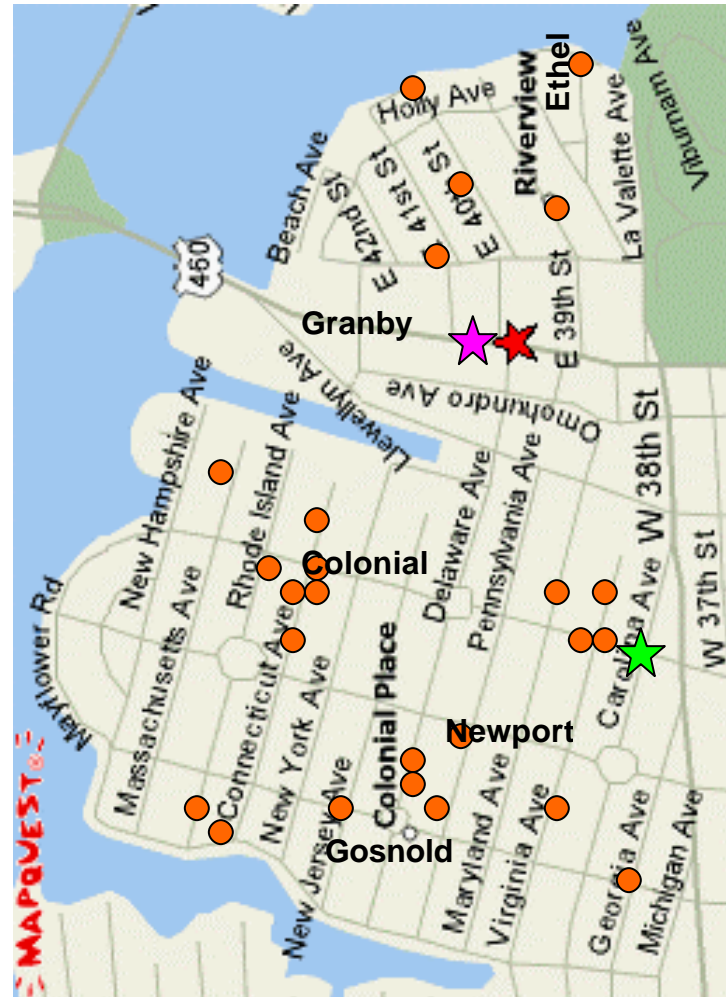

Primarily black and white photos capture subtle nuances of cityscapes, graveyards, and 3.2 billion year-old microfossils

Joanna Jenkins 4117 Granby Street

Lydia and Benny Netzer

Fabric / painted canvas

★ Family of artists displaying and selling fabric bags, pop art canvases, and Halloween decorations; proceeds to benefit CPRV’s Civic League community bike ride

Hospitality stops kindly provided by:

- ★ The Lydia Roper House
- ★ The Ruckstaetter Family and Friends
- ★ The Riverview Coffee Parlor

★ C O U P O N ★

Receive one (1) small coffee for 25¢ at the

Riverview Coffee Parlor

4117 Granby Street, Norfolk VA

Coupon valid October 8, 2006 only.

COLONIAL PLACE - RIVERVIEW

8th Annual

Front Porch

Art Walk

Sunday, October 8th, 2006

12 Noon until 5 PM

Tour Guide

Tasting Gallery (on the cover)

Tasting Gallery

Lydia Roper House

127 E. 40th St

Can't make it to all of our stops? Don't know where to start? The Lydia Roper House is hosting our first "Tasting Gallery," where many of our participating artists have submitted a sample work to give our guests an idea of what to expect on their porches. Stop in, enjoy a complimentary snack or drink, and see what each artist has to offer! Pieces in the gallery are for sale.

Riverview Participating Artists

Betsy Rivers-Kennedy

3843 Beach Ave

Calligraphy with mixed media, including collage, and drawing

Award-winning artist has shown nationally and has studied with international professionals; resident artist at Norfolk's d'Art Center

Lanie Nichols

219 E. 39th St

Beaded and sterling silver jewelry

Jennifer Bernstein Hilliard

127 E. 40th St

Mixed media

Mythical traditions inspire oil and mixed media creations

Suzanne Watson

309 E. 40th St

Acrylic paintings

Hampton Roads native; CNU business graduate, Class A Building Contractor, Virginia Realtor and recovering "Closet Artist"

Gregory Bryant

220A E. 40th St

Porcelain sculpture and photography

MantaWave Design; works in porcelain, photography, and mixed media to capture a watery symphony in a visual format

Sheila Robinson

202 E. 41st St

Oil on canvas painting

Paintings inspired by nature; founder of the Front Porch Art Walk

Colonial Place Participating Artists

The Ruckstaetter Family

501 Carolina Ave

Hospitality Stop

From 12 noon until 2:30, stop by the Ruckstaetter home and enjoy the hospitality of our neighbors – food and drinks provided!

Aimee Umidi

4105 Colonial Ave

CPRV Art Walk T-shirts

Digitally enhanced photos and art pressed on T-shirts commemorating our 8th annual event

Elizabeth A. Sawyer

4201 Colonial Ave

Functional and sculptured porcelain

Award-winning work combines a modern aesthetic with the nuances of Asian forms and decorative motifs

Margaret Sawyer

4201 Colonial Ave

Functional porcelain

Studied at TCC's and Norfolk's Visual Arts Centers; work's bright and warm colors compliment most kitchens and dining room tables

Véro Buzard

4709 Colonial Ave

Knits and fibers

Former professional to designer store in Paris; creating one-of-a-kind bags, scarves and ponchos

Kristin Bourcier

441 Connecticut Ave

Mosaic art

Tile and stained glass combined in pictures, windows and functional art such as tables and vases

Karen Franz

516 Connecticut Ave

Costumes

Self-taught seamstress has worked in the Virginia Opera costume shop; designed and constructed roller derby uniforms this year

Noelle Baldwin

525 Connecticut Ave

Sculpture

Inspired by Dia De Los Muertos (South American Day of the Dead Celebration), creates and paints clay figurines

Anna Harrison

525 Connecticut Ave

Handcrafted jewelry

One-of-a-kind pieces incorporate photography and mosaic, necklaces created from vintage jewelry

Richelle Davies

536 Connecticut Ave

Beaded jewelry, also children's jewelry

Self-taught bead artist; inspired to make jewelry for children and the young-at-heart

Sarah Webster-Eastman

618 Delaware Ave

Jewelry and paintings

Self-taught interior design; finds creative expression in gold and sterling silver jewelry that reflects the psyche of the female persona

Elyse

618 Delaware Ave

Jewelry

semi-precious stone avant garde beaded jewelry; each piece one-of-a-kind

Joseph C. Davis

633 Delaware Ave

Photography

Recent exhibits at the Contemporary Art Center in Virginia Beach and Net.Works Core Gallery in Denver, CO

Nancy Topping Bazin

4005 Gosnold Ave

Paintings (oils, pastels, watermedia) and drawings

Ongoing exhibit at the Crossroads Art Center in Richmond; shows with TAA amongst other juried events, award-winning works

Andy Gordon

4615 Gosnold Ave

Ceramic

Specializing in functional stoneware, including fantasy-oriented pieces; oxidation and reduction glazes create earthy palette

Jacqueline F. Falkenhan

422 Maryland Ave

Mixed media folk art

Self-taught, work informed by the Norfolk Museum School and ODU; shamanic art reveals sense of whimsy

Shirley Cooper-Sherron

428 Massachusetts Ave

Beaded glass and silver jewelry

Designed from the heart utilizing natural gemstones, glass and crystals. Special orders welcome!